Conflict Minerals

“Supplier will use commercially reasonable practices to ensure products or services will not be produced, manufactured or performed, in whole or in part, . . . (iii) containing conflict minerals originating in the Democratic Republic of Congo or bordering countries per Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Act (Proof of compliance will be provided to TDK-Lambda upon request), or (iv) comprising “suspect/counterfeit parts”, defined for purposes of this section as being parts that may be of new manufacture, but are misleadingly labeled to provide the impression that they are of a different class or quality or from a different source than is actually the case.

“Suspect/counterfeit parts” also include refurbished parts, complete with false labeling, that are presented as new parts, or any parts that are designated as suspect by the U.S. Government (such as parts listed in alerts published by the Defense Contract Management Agency under the Government-Industry Data Exchange Program (GIDEP).”
